3. Rules Governing Spot Allotment (reproduced from the UG Admission Bulletin 2019)

Spot Counselling Rounds: Allotment after Online Allotments

In the first session of the Spot Allotment for each category, applicants admitted in the course on that date and have opted for reallocation as per Option 1 in Step 8, as well as all those applicants who are not yet allotted a seat but whose ranking is higher than the last rank admitted in any category shall be eligible in this round.

The applicants shall be invited as per their ranking and shall be required to choose a seat from those available, and the same shall be allotted to the applicant. The applicant shall then be required to follow steps 5, 6 and 7 to obtain admission.

In the second session of the Spot Counseling, all applicants in each category whose rank is higher than the last admitted rank and who failed to take admission during the online Allotment Rounds shall be invited in order of their rank to choose a seat from those available and the same shall be allotted to the applicant. This shall be permitted only for the first round of the spot counseling. The applicant shall then be required to follow steps 5, 6 and 7 to obtain admission.

In the subsequent sessions of the Spot Allotment for each category, applicants not yet admitted shall be invited by as per their ranking and shall be required to choose a seat from those available, and the same shall be allotted to the applicant. The applicant shall then be required to follow steps 5, 6 and 7 to obtain admission. Applicants are advised to carefully exercise their choice before confirming the admission in the Spot Round. If an applicant cancels their admission after the spot round, they will not be considered for admission in any future counseling.

4. Procedure of Spot allotment:

The candidates have to follow the following steps in order to participate in SPOT round for admission:

1. The candidate must appear in person at the Central Institute of Education (CIE) according to the spot-counseling schedule as announced on the Admission Portal. If a candidate fails to present herself on the specified round at the date and time assigned in the Spot allotment schedule, she forfeits her candidature and will not be considered. The allotment of seats to the candidates will be made only when they personally attend the spot allotment session at the designated date and time.
3. Candidate must bring the relevant certificates/documents and admit card for B.El.Ed. entrance examination, which needs to be produced at the time of allotment failing which seat in spot round will not be offered.
4. The allotment will commence from highest rank onwards for each category. Allocation of colleges will be strictly on the basis of unique rank of the applicant and availability of seats in the colleges at that point of time.
5. The candidates offered provisional admission during the spot round must submit the copies of their certificates (in case admitted in any other course/college) or Original Certificates for verification on the spot to reserve their seat. Subsequently the Original Certificates will be submitted in the allocated college. If the candidate fails to take admission within the stipulated time as mentioned in the schedule the offer would stand cancelled.

6. The candidates who are issued provisional admission letter during Spot round will have to report to the allotted college for verification of required documents along with the admission form within the stipulated period of time, as per the schedule.

7. Once the College approves the admission of the candidate online, a fee link will be activated in the candidate's portal. The candidate must pay the fee online within the stipulated time, failing which her allotted seat will stand automatically cancelled.

5. Important Instructions

- The choice of colleges exercised at the time of Spot allotment shall be final.
- Candidates are advised to carefully exercise their choice before accepting the offer admission in the Spot Round. If the candidate cancels the admission after spot round she will not be considered for admission in B.El.Ed. in subsequent rounds, if any.
