

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

ADVERTISEMENT

Ref. No. Schs/ UTA/ 2009
June, 2009

Date: 12th

Applications are invited from eligible candidates for the University Teaching Assistantship Scheme-2006 (UTA Scheme), for the year 2009 to assist the faculty in the Departments who are engaged in the teaching of M.A./M.Sc. programmes.

The last date of submission of applications to the concerned Head of the Department is September 30, 2009.

Eligibility Criteria:

Candidates (general and reserved categories) who have obtained their Master's degree in the current year (2009) and the previous year (2008) and have scored more than 55% marks in the Post-Graduate as well as Under-Graduate examinations will be eligible. Only those candidates who are in the top 30% of the successful candidates of each academic session will be eligible to be considered for the UTA Scheme. (In Departments where the total no. of students is 10 to 12 only, all candidates having secured 60% marks both in graduation and post-graduation will be eligible to be considered for the UTA Scheme.).

Period of Assistantship:

The University Teaching Assistantship will be for four years, and may be renewed annually after a performance review and recommendations by Departmental Research Committee.

Value of Assistantship:

Teaching Assistant would draw Rs.25,000/- per month and a contingency of Rs.10,000/- (for Arts, Commerce & Business, Mathematical Sciences and Social Sciences Subjects) and Rs.25,000/- (for Science Subjects) per annum in the case of candidates who do not have any fellowship. In the case of candidates with a UGC/CSIR or other fellowship, the Teaching Assistant will be allowed to draw the difference in such a way that the total value is Rs.25,000/-.

Responsibilities:

- I. Teaching Assistants selected under this Scheme will be required to undertake Practical/ Tutorials/ Internship/ Supervision for checking assignments (six hours per week) along with their research work.
- II. Selected candidates will have to be registered for Ph.D. by respective departments in case they are not already registered.

Termination:

The University reserves the right to terminate the assistantship without any notice on unsatisfactory report of the research work/ teaching duties carried out by the candidate.

No. of Assistantships:

Maximum of five Assistantships for small Departments and Ten Assistantships in those Departments where more than 200 students are admitted per year per Department.

Note:

1. In semester based Post-Graduate courses, applications for UTA be invited after the third semester examination by the Department. The top 30% may be determined on the basis of the performance in three semesters taken together.
2. Since UTA scheme has been introduced for encouraging doctoral (Ph.D.) research, it will be available only for candidate's pursuing their Ph.D. programme. Those Department where M.Phil. is a pre-requisite for Ph.D. admissions, will not be able to avail of this scheme.
3. If a candidate is rejected in one year, then the candidate becomes ineligible to be considered again in the following year under the Scheme.
4. Candidates from reserved categories irrespective of being/not-being in top 30% of the successful candidates of each academic session will be eligible to be considered provided they have secured 55% marks in the Post-Graduate and Under-Graduate examinations.

Sd/-

REGISTRAR