MPhil/PhD Supervisors in the Department of Buddhist Studies

The Department of Buddhist Studies offers the degrees of MA, MPhil, and PhD in the field of Buddhist Studies. The field of Buddhist Studies is an interdisciplinary course consisting of the subjects of History, Philosophy, Pāli, Sanskrit, Chinese, and Tibetan Studies. Applications are invited from eligible Department/College teachers to supervise M.Phil./Ph.D. scholars in the Department of Buddhist Studies. Interested teachers should submit with the undersigned by 04 March 2019 duly completed form (given below) along with copies of their brief CV and lists of publications.

Ordinance.VI.G: Eligibility Criteria for Supervisor

1. Any regular Professor of the University with at least five research publications in refereed journals and any regular Associate/Assistant Professor of the University/College with a Ph.D. degree and at least two research publications in refereed journals may be recognized as a Supervisor. Provided that in areas/disciplines where there is no or only a limited number of refereed journals, M.Phil. Committee/DRC and BRS may relax the above condition for recognition of a person as Research Supervisor with reasons recorded in writing.
2. Only a full-time regular teacher of Department/College or the University can act as a Supervisor. External supervisors are not allowed. However, Co-Supervisor can be allowed in inter-disciplinary areas from other Department/College of the University or other related institutions with the approval of the Research Advisory Committee.
3. A Research Supervisor/Co-supervisor who is a Professor, at any given point of time cannot guide more than three (3) M.Phil. and Eight (8) Ph.D. scholars. An Associate Professor as Research Supervisor can guide up to a maximum of two (2) M.Phil. and six (6) Ph.D. scholars and an Assistant Professor as Research Supervisor can guide up to a maximum of one (1) M.Phil. and four (4) Ph.D. scholars. This is excluding supernumerary allotment. In case of co-supervision, an enrolled research scholar will be counted as one each, for the Supervisor and the Co-Supervisors.
