PRESS RELEASE

The Ambassador of Federal Republic of Germany to India, His Excellency Walter J. Lindner presented a speech on 'Public Diplomacy-Leaving the cage' followed by an interaction with the students at the University of Delhi on Wednesday, 25th September, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. Professor Yogesh K. Tyagi, Vice Chancellor, University of Delhi presided over the function. The German Ambassador addressed a distinguished gathering of academicians, research scholars and students.

The programme was inaugurated by lighting the lamp accompanied by an invocation rendered by a group of Undergraduate students from various colleges of the University of Delhi.

Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Professor Yogesh K. Tyagi welcomed His Excellency Walter J. Lindner, German Ambassador to India. This was followed by a cultural programme presented by the Culture Council, University of Delhi featuring the Undergraduate students from different colleges.

In the speech delivered, His Excellency Walter J. Lindner spoke about the need for modern diplomacy that can reach beyond traditional audiences of political leaders and the privileged. He underlined the climate emergency that the planet is facing and the role of students in bringing this emergency to the attention of the decision makers. The Ambassador spoke about the coming together of East and West in tackling the global challenges of our time and encouraged the students to use their talent and passion in their respective disciplines in order to find creative solutions. The speech was followed by a Question and Answer session with a gathering of over 700 students.

The programme concluded with the Vote of Thanks proposed by the Pro-Vice Chancellor, Professor J.P. Khurana.
