NOTIFICATION

The Proctor's office as well as DUSU election office (2017-18) have received many complaints about defacement of public and private properties by pasting posters, putting banners, writing on the walls etc. about DUSU election, all over the city. Besides, cavalcades of vehicles (more than four) with banners have been observed moving within the campus as well as adjoining areas. These are gross violations of the Code of Conduct for DUSU elections, Lyngdoh Committee recommendations and NGT Order. The DUSU election committee directs the stakeholders to immediately stop all these activities and remove the posters/banners and clean the defaced walls within 36 hours of this notification, failing which action will be taken as per the extant rules, including non-acceptance of candidature, cancellation of nominations or even countermanding of election.
