

Notice

The Revised First Admission List for LL.B. admissions for academic session 2017-18 has been published. Please check the website of University of Delhi. The candidates whose names appear in the said List are advised to check their admission portal by logging into their respective dashboards for further process. They may also exercise the option for reallocation once their fee is successfully paid.

The Candidates who have already paid their fee must exercise their option for reallocation, if they wish to do so, by logging into their admission portal. This includes those candidates also who have applied for reallocation earlier.
