MA (ENGLISH) ADMISSION 2017: Last opportunity to those students who were unable to report earlier

The candidates whose names appeared in the first, second or third admission lists for Admission to MA English programme for the academic year 2017-18, but who were unable to report at the Department of English, University of Delhi for verification of their documents, are now being given a last opportunity to seek admission subject to availability of seats in respective categories. Such students are required to submit an application to the Department of English in person latest by 3.00 PM of 16th August 2017 during working hours and on working days. Such applications must contain their complete details including the list and category in which their names appeared alongwith the admission list rank. The admission will be granted in the order of their names appearing in the respective admission lists and subject to the availability of seats in their respective categories. It may not be possible to allot such students the colleges of their choice. Mere submission of an application for consideration of admission does not guarantee admission if the seats are not available and/ or if other eligibility criteria are not fulfilled.

The Admissions of the students whose names appeared in the 1st List will be done on 17th August 2017 and Admissions of those students whose names appeared in the 2nd or 3rd lists will be done on 18th August 2017 subject to the availability of seats.
