

ADMISSION BRANCH

Notice –Admission to PG Courses IV

University of Delhi had announced and completed admissions against two merit lists for majority of its PG Courses.

Guidelines for admissions under the next Admission List will be announced on 10th Dec 2020 (Thursday). Due to the unprecedented situations this year, the Departments have been requested to look at all the grievances of the First and Second Lists who could not apply/ could not pay the fees/ could not update the result/ result was declared late. The shortlisted applicants are required to upload their documents, apply and make the payment within the stipulated time.

It is reiterated that the students of University of Delhi do not need a migration certificate (Notification dated 20th Nov 2020).

As mentioned in the Bulletin of Information “In the Admission Lists allocation is done on basis of MERIT-CUM-PREFERENCE / RANK-CUM-PREFERENCE and the availability of seats in the respective Departments / Colleges. Students are advised to go through the fee structure of various colleges before submitting their preferences.” The allocation of seats is done as per past practice.

Guidelines Adopted for the Allocation of Seats in PG Courses

1. The Admission List has been generated on the basis of Rank/Merit and Preference of the College as given by the candidate in the Registration Form.
2. A candidate's name will appear in a category in which he/she will get his/her best preference of a college.
3. If a category candidate is getting the same preference in UR as in his/her category and candidate is fulfilling the minimum eligibility of UR then the Candidate's name will be considered in UR.
4. If a category candidate is getting better preference in his/ her respective category than the UR, then candidate's name will be considered in his/ her respective category only.
5. The candidates of PwD Category will pay fee prescribed in their category for their course irrespective of the category in which they are admitted,

Dated: 9th Dec 2020