No. CEO/DUSU/Elec/2014/
Dated: 01/09/2014

To,
Mr BS Bassi
Police commissioner, Delhi

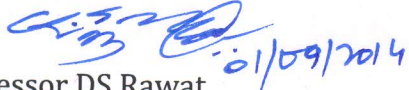

Dear Mr Bassi:

As you are aware that DUSU election 2014 – 15 will be held on September 12, 2014, and code of conduct is in force. We had couple of meetings with the Delhi Police Officials and we thank the Delhi Police Officials for their help and support.

There are reports of defacing of public property, as posters are being pasted on the public places. As per Delhi Prevention of Defacement of Property Act (copy enclosed), defacement of public property is a punishable act. Since police has not filed a single case against any individuals/group, so defacing of public property has increased day by day. Strong legal action will be a deterrent for others, and it will help us to conduct the DUSU election as per rules.

I humbly request you please take stern legal action against the groups/individuals, which violates the Defacement of Property Act, as the case may be, with the intimation to the undersigned.

With best regards

Professor DS Rawat
Chief Election Officer
