Community Work Experience:

From my student days wherein I worked (Research Assistant) for the Indian Journal of Human Rights (published by the Centre for Human Rights, Hyderabad Central University), I have been engaged with social issues. In addition to my academic and teaching activities, I have also been associated with organizations working at the grassroots level and research organizations. For pursuing research ideas, I have collaborated with the Indian Social Institute, National Campaign for Dalit Human Rights and Indian Institute of Dalit Studies.
