

GANDHI BHAWAN
UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

Gandhi Bhawan and Prasar Bharti – a collaborative programme - 18th March 2015

Report by: Dr. Nisha Bala Tyagi, Deputy Dean Academic

On the occasion of completion of 100 years - homecoming of the Father of the Nation Mahatma Gandhi from South Africa, Gandhi Bhawan in collaboration with Prasar Bharati, Akashvani, Delhi organized a programme on 'Gandhiji Ke Priye Bhajan' a presentation by the Gaanvrind artists of Akashvani on March 18, 2015 followed by a Symposium on 'Gandhi Darshan Aur Antim Jan'.

The programme started with the inaugural speech given by Shri Rajiv Kumar Shukla, Dy. Director General, Akashvani. The artists from Prasar Bharti sang Gandhiji's favourite bhajans: Vaishnav Jan to tene..., Amar Rahe Bapu..... by Dr. Kunwar Bechain, Who Andheron mein gaya.... by Rahman Mussavir and the music was composed by Pandit Jwala Prasad.

The programme was followed by a Symposium on 'Gandhi Darshan Aur Antim Jan' in which the eminent speakers Ms. Radha Bhatt Chairperson, Gandhi Peace Foundation, Dr. Manimala, Director, Gandhi Smriti and Darshan Samiti, Rajghat, Dr. Bindu Puri, Department of Philosophy, University of Delhi, Dr. Sita Bimbrahw (Retd.), Kamala Nehru College, University of Delhi, and Shri Arun Tiwari, Senior Journalist (moderator of the symposium) spoke about the life and Philosophy of Mahatma Gandhi and motivated the participants to understand Gandhian lifestyle and reach people who need us. The audience enjoyed the performance of the singers/ artists and discussed various issues related to Gandhian Philosophy with the speakers during the symposium.

Dr. Nisha Bala Tyagi, Dy. Dean Academic, Incharge Academic Activities, Gandhi Bhawan delivered the valedictory address.

Photographs:

