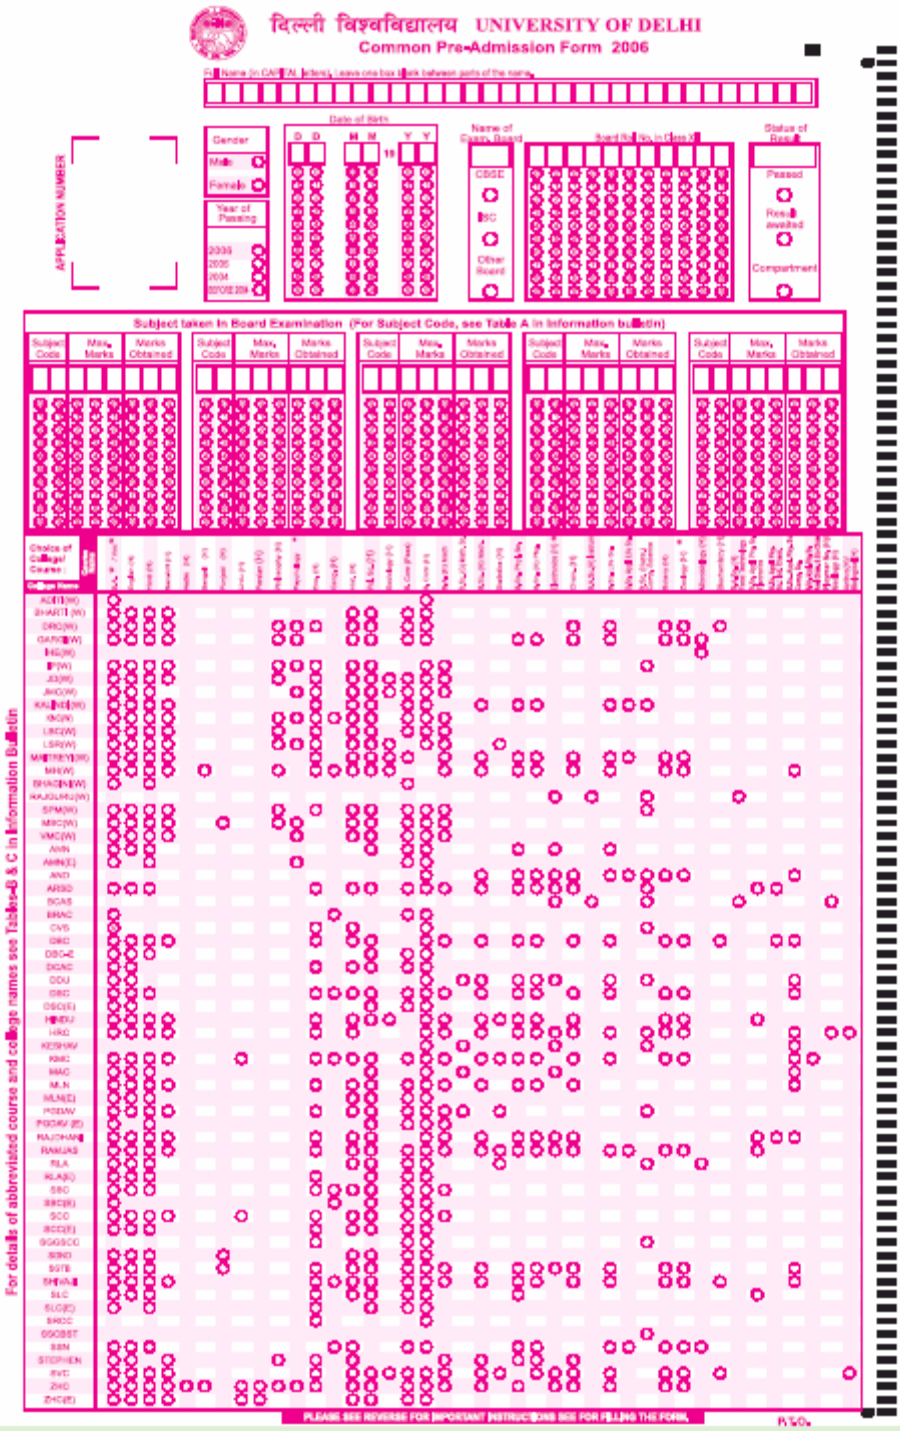
Appendix-C

Specimen Copy of Pre-Admission Form 2006



The Pre-admission form printed on a special paper, uses computer scanners and ICR/OMR software for converting handwritten information provided by the applicant into computer data for further processing. The software rejects mutilated and damaged forms. Clearer the handwriting, more accurate is the data generated by the computer.

IMPORTANT INSTRUCTIONS

1. In order to avoid rejection, the candidate must ensure that
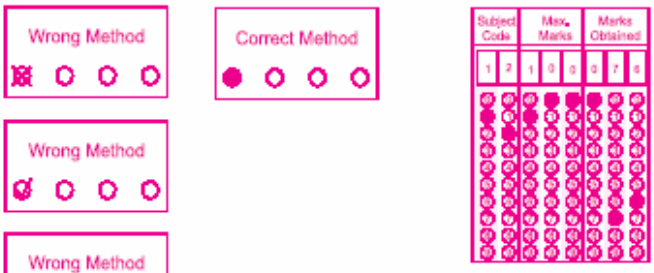
   (a) The form is not folded, crumpled or mutilated in any manner.
   (b) No extra marks are made anywhere except wherever required
   (c) The black marks on the margin are important. They should not be tampered with marker under any circumstances.
2. Use Blue or Black pen only.
3. Use the Specimen Form for practice before filling up the actual Pre-admission Form.
4. This Pre-admission Form has two sheets. The second sheet is a carbonless copy. No form will be accepted without the second sheet still attached to it.
5. Fill the entire Pre-admission Form without detaching the carbonless copy. The copy will be detached, duly stamped and returned to you as acknowledgement at the time of submission at any of the designated University Admission Information Centres.
6. Photocopies of the form will not be accepted as these cannot be scanned.
7. Select the colleges you would like to study in and the course you would like to pursue by darkening appropriate bubble keeping in mind the cut-off percentages of the last academic year. Please remember that the cut-offs give only the trends.
8. Information or data furnished on this Pre-admission Form is the sole responsibility of the applicant. Incomplete forms will be rejected.
9. All courses available in Colleges for which registration is done through Pre-admission form are included in the form. However courses for which entrance tests are held, or done directly by the College, or students seeking admissions on sports or Extra Curricular Activities basis, candidates may contact the colleges concerned.
10. This is only a pre-admission form. Submission does not guarantee admission. Admission will be granted by the Colleges subject to fulfillment of prescribed eligibility criteria and is at the discretion of the Colleges.

PROCEDURE FOR FILING PRE-ADMISSION FORM


Darken Appropriate Circle / Oval Completely as shown Below