

URGENT:
NOTICE FOR POSTGRADUATE APPLICANTS (28th August 2018)

The portal will re-open to allow all PG Applicants who did not update their marks of the qualifying examination when the portal was made available earlier.

An additional opportunity is being given now to the applicants who have not sought admission so far to update their marks in the qualifying examination.

The portal will remain open only for one day, i.e. 28th August 2018.

Please note that updating the marks need not necessarily mean that the applicant will be shortlisted for Admission.

These applicants will be considered for admissions only in the subsequent Admission Lists, if any, depending upon the availability of seats.

Applicants are further advised to read the instructions carefully while updating their marks.
